

SEP 16 1977

Dear Admiral Turner:

If you will please read the enclosed article, you will read that I was a collector of autographs for over 35 years with over 7,000 autographs in my collection.

Well, there has been a change in these figures -- the over 35 years still stands but the 7,000 was changed by a TROPICAL STORM/FLOOD called AGNES. Yes, I was one of the unfortunate people who lost everything in the flood -- possessions, furniture and most of my autograph collection and autographed photographs.

So the purpose of this letter -- nothing more than to ask for your autograph again.

I truly thank you for your time, your understanding, and your courtesy.

Yours sincerely,

HIRSH COHEN

P.S. For your convenience, I have enclosed a self-addressed self-stick label for mailing purposes.

From the desk of
HIRSH COHEN

Please excuse this type of letter -- all I'm trying to do is to rebuild my collection back to pre-flood days by asking everyone to send me their autograph again. Will you help, please!!!!
